To whom it may concern,

The Sudbury Wolves are honouring Indigenous peoples during their home game on Friday, January 27th against the Windsor Spitfires and they are inviting you to celebrate Indigenous history, heritage, and diversity.

The Sudbury Wolves want to celebrate the culture in its entirety and invite you to join us for our Indigenous Celebration game as the Sudbury Wolves wear special designed jerseys, created by Raven Debassige in partnership with the Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre, which will be up for auction supported by Shkagamik-Kwe Health Centre as a custodian on behalf of the Urban Indigenous Sacred Circle to advocate for Indigenous youth in sport and mental wellness.

Dokis First Nation will help us sing the national anthem in Ojibway and other initiatives by Indigenous leaders/organizations will take place during the game.

If you are interested in joining the Sudbury Wolves on January 27th with your organization, group rates are available and all members will be seated together and welcomed on the video board/pa.

For more information or to arrange a group outing, please contact myself, Chelsea Parent, Group Sales and Ticket Services Representative, through the information below.

We look forward to seeing you at the arena! Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions.

Regards,
